2010 BOYS' AND GIRLS' CAMPS

This camp will help give participants the incredible opportunity to spend time with college soccer coaches who are among the most respected in the nation.

The program will provide recreational players comprehensive instruction with plenty of fun, exercise and a chance to learn from the best. The camps will help participants gain new skills and make new friends.

For more serious soccer players, the experienced staff of college coaches and collegiate student-athletes will enhance their training, providing feedback on how they can take their game to the next level. Daily training sessions will provide players chances to develop technical skills and tactical play. The camp will provide participants with position-specific development and training that will get them noticed by UTB/TSC coaches.

AGE GROUPS FOR ALL CAMPS

Mini: 4-7 years old

Junior: 8-13 years old

Elite: 14-17 years old

CAMP INSTRUCTORS

The 2010 Scorpion Soccer Camp will be led by UTB/TSC soccer head coaches Dan Balaguero (men's) and Nik Barjaktarevic (women's).

In the 2007-9 seasons, Balaguero directed the Scorpions to three Red River Athletic Conference regular season and tournament championships. The Scorpions are a perfect 30-0 against conference opponents. Balaguero was named RRAC Coach of the Year in all three seasons. The Scorpions finished 13-5-2 in 2007, 15-5 in 2008 and 17-0-2 in 2009 for an overall record of 45-10-3 (.801).

Barjaktarevic directed the Scorpions to the 2007 and 2009 RRAC championships, advancing to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics postseason playoffs both times. In 2008, the Scorpions shared the RRAC regular season title. Barjaktarevic's three-year record with the Scorpions is 32-18-3 (.632).
